

Word of the Week for February 15, 2009

“Love is in the air” this weekend. Have you felt it? Another Valentine’s Day has come and gone and I am sure the greeting card industry is pleased once again!! I hope you had a wonderful Valentine’s Day.

Today we will be honoring our senior adults with a special Valentine’s Day luncheon following our late morning worship service. I hope all of you senior adults enjoy yourself today! Even if you have not RSVP’d, please join us anyway.

Perhaps you missed out on doing something special for your Valentine this year. It is not too late!!! Sign up for our marriage conference on February 28th and enjoy a special time with your sweetheart. It is going to be a great time of sharpening our marriages!

Remember this week that Jesus IS love!
