

Word of the Week

How has your week been? Perhaps more relevant, how has your morning been? If you are in the majority, you would probably answer by saying “busy” and perhaps “hectic.” I know what you mean!

I want to challenge you with something this morning, and I hope it is not too late when you read this. Take a few moments and clear your mind of everything going on around you and prepare your heart for the privilege you have to worship our King this morning. Block out the struggles and issues you may have had and focus directly into the face of our Savior! It will make worship so much better and more meaningful!

I hope you have a great week!
