

Word of the Week

“How time flies!” That is a phrase we hear often in the culture we live in today. 150 years is a long time for anything to survive. Yet that is what we gather this weekend to celebrate . . . 150 years of God’s greatness, goodness and faithfulness to FBC Grandview! I am so glad you are here to be a part of the celebration.

I want to encourage you throughout the weekend, as you reflect on the events of days gone by and current day, to be reminded what has taken place is not a result of anything any one person has done but of the faithfulness of our Lord! With that in mind commit to pray for his continued blessings on future days. He has great things in store for FBC Grandview and I believe the best days are yet to come!

I am excited to celebrate with each of you!!
