

Word of the Week

Today is Mother's Day! There is one thing we all have, and it is a mother! There is no debating that fact! As we celebrate today, my hope is as we honor our mothers that most of all we honor our Father! I am concerned how sometimes we get so wrapped up in a holiday we have a tendency to miss the true reason for us gathering together. It is to glorify our Heavenly Father through our worship and the teaching of His Word!

I also want to remind you that Mother's Day can be a difficult day for some who perhaps have never been able to have children, have a mother who they do not feel is honorable, or have lost children. I ask you to be sensitive to this today as a family and keep one another in prayer!

I hope you have a wonderful week!
