

Word of the Week

Well, the bags are packed and passports are ready! We are ready to embark tomorrow morning on what I believe will be the greatest trip of our lifetime! The Rose's, Foreman's, Johnson's and Shelly and I will be in the Holy Land by Tuesday morning. I cannot express how grateful Shelly and I are for the opportunity to experience the Bible in real life. What a great church we are privileged to serve and be a part of!

We will be out of pocket until July 23rd, so if you need something, call the church office and the staff (who are amazing by the way) will do the best they can to assist you. Remember! Les is still new on the block, so cut him a little slack along the way! We will be praying for you while we are away and hope you will do the same for us!

Have a great week!
